Goldenberg's

"the dependable store."

(926-928 7th-706 K Sts.)

Greater bargains for a greater business.

And at the same time get the stocks ready for inventory. Immense selling now is worth a great deal to us before we begin to count stock, for the more we sell the less we shall have to count. Another thing, you know how nearly we're ready to move into the new additions. There'll be a general moving about throughout the store—scarcely any department will stay where it now is located. In each instance more space will be given to selling and stocks and wider variety will be the result. These are really remarkable values and by shopping about you will realize it.
